

CHILDREN DAY CELEBRATION

After celebrating Diwali a few days ago, our children celebrated another special day. On 14th November, we celebrated 124th birthday of independent India's first Prime Minister Mr. Jawaharlal Nehru. Children recognized him with the name 'Chacha Nehru'

On 14th Nov, 2013 an inspirational effort was shown by the entire staff members including Teachers, Physiotherapists, speech Therapists, which mesmerized the children with their accomplishment. Celebration initiated with the child's birthday lifted the aura of the atmosphere very beautifully. Progression was taken by a quiz competition held for students heightened their zeal to win the competition. In conjunction with this Teachers and therapist presented heterogeneous variety of dance forms and melodious songs for children respectively.

Entire school felt amused after watching the performances presented to the children as a token of love and depth of affection for them.

Additionally, children were granted to present their composition and they showered their performances and lifted up their voices on their respective topics. Last but not the least, prize distribution was done and prize distribution was done to the children who won the quiz. Eventually celebration concluded with the foot loose dance by children on the floor. Although it was compact programme but this program would always be preserved in everyone's heart.....
