

VISIT OF PRIME MINISTER'S WIFE OF JAPAN – MRS AKIE ABE

Her Excellency Mrs. Akie Abe, spouse of Prime Minister of Japan, visited the NGO Tamana, a non profit NGO for the multiply challenged and autistic individuals at its Center for Autism, on the 26th of Jan 2014.

She was welcomed by Dr. Shayama Chona, president of Tamana, and Tamana herself, along with hundreds of autistic children, with their parents, special educators, therapists and vocational instructors of Tamana.

She showed a lot of affection and empathy for the autistic children and promised to relate the Center for Autism in Japan to Tamana.
